

Intuitive Writing Invocation

To the Source of all creation, please create for me a crystalline temple of light for around me.

I invite all my high level guides, my angels and great beings of light to please join me.

Please clear and cleanse all energies which are not of the light and fill this temple with the highest, brightest and most radiant light.

Please help me clearly hear, see, feel and conceptualise your divine guidance and that the words that I write give blessings to me and to anyone else who may read them.

Thank you for the guidance that you give to me.

Thank you, thank you, thank you.
